

Name _____

Date _____

Figurative Language

---

Directions: Label: simile, metaphor, hyperbole, or personification. Explain.

Example: The wind howled through the trees, making us tremble.

Personification

Human qualities were given to the wind.

---

1. With all of the overtime that Kathy works, you know she has tons of money saved for her vacation.

_____

2. The last car I bought was a real lemon, making me afraid to buy used cars.

_____

3. Our light bill will be huge. This house is as cold as a refrigerator.

_____

4. No matter how hard my new book beckons me, I must clean my room.

_____

5. The tsunami swallowed the village in a matter of minutes.

_____

6. I wish you and your brother wouldn't fight like cats and dogs all the time.

_____