Name _____

Independent and Subordinate Clauses

- Independent (main) clause – expresses a complete thought.
  Sandy likes to read mysteries because she wants to be a detective.
- Subordinate (dependent) clause – doesn't express a complete thought and cannot stand alone as a sentence.
- Sandy likes to read mysteries because she wants to be a detective.

Directions: If the underlined part of the sentence is an independent clause, write IND in the blank. If it is a subordinate clause, write SUB in the blank.

1. ____ Since you won't give me a discount, I can't afford to buy it.

2. ____ By the time you we get there, the show will already be started.

3. ____ Now that you have taken Spanish, you are ready for your trip to Mexico.

4. ____ You need to let me know whenever you are in town the next time.

5. ____ Although I didn't think I would like it, I enjoyed reading Frankenstein.

6. ____ When I first heard that song, I knew it was going to a big hit.

7. ____ I am going to be finished eating by the time you get here.

8. ____ Whenever you play that song, it makes me want to dance.

9. ____ The women who quilted the award winning quilt donated it to charity.

10. ____ Although I am taking three history classes, I prefer math and science.

11. ____ Since you didn't make a reservation, we can't eat at my favorite restaurant.

12. ____ The red sequined dress that you borrowed for the dance is my favorite.

13. ____ You need to turn on the dishwasher after you finish cleaning the kitchen.

14. ____ After leaving the party, Joe and Bill decided to go out for pizza.

15. ____ When she entered the room, everyone stopped talking and watched her.

Independent and Subordinate Clauses

- Independent (main) clause – expresses a complete thought.
  Sandy likes to read mysteries because she wants to be a detective.
- Subordinate (dependent) clause – doesn't express a complete thought and cannot stand alone as a sentence.
  Sandy likes to read mysteries because she wants to be a detective

Directions: If the underlined part of the sentence is an independent clause, write IND in the blank.   If it is a subordinate clause, write SUB in the blank.

1. IND Since you won't give me a discount, I can't afford to buy it.

2. SUB By the time you we get there, the show will already be started.

3. SUB Now that you have taken Spanish, you are ready for your trip to Mexico.

4. IND You need to let me know whenever you are in town the next time.

5. IND Although I didn't think I would like it, I enjoyed reading Frankenstein.

6. SUB When I first heard that song, I knew it was going to a big hit.

7. SUB I am going to be finished eating by the time you get here.

8. IND Whenever you play that song, it makes me want to dance.

9. SUB The women who quilted the award winning quilt donated it to charity.

10. SUB Although I am taking three history classes, I prefer math and science.

11. IND Since you didn't make a reservation, we can't eat at my favorite restaurant.

12. SUB The red sequined dress that you borrowed for the dance is my favorite.

13. IND You need to turn on the dishwasher after you finish cleaning the kitchen.

14. SUB After leaving the party, Joe and Bill decided to go out for pizza.

15. IND When she entered the room, everyone stopped talking and watched her.

©www.LittleWorksheets.com